Monday October 17th, 2005

For the first two sessions attendees may choose either;

Advanced Chart Pattern Analysis and Trading with the Odds

or

Getting Started Right with AIQ

All attendees are together for the balance of the seminar.

Advanced Chart Pattern Analysis

by Steve Hill, CEO AIQ Systems

In this session discover the elements that are required for a chart pattern to be valid. Including why a given pattern works or does not and how to trade it. Effectiveness rates and where to place exit targets will also be discussed.

Trading with the Odds

by David Johnson, Co-founder NaviTrader Inc.

Certain patterns have higher profit probabilities than others. This session will explore why certain patterns work in all market conditions. Further, it will examine how proper risk management techniques can be used to eliminate potential low probability trades and manage others to profitable conclusion. Reward risk ratios, profit projections, stop loss management and proper position sizing will also be covered.

Getting Started Right with AIQ

by David Vomund, Chief Analyst, AIQ Systems

New users will learn methods of using the software which will help save time and reduce the learning curve. Charting, Reports, Data Manager, and basic EDS functions will be covered.

Effective Swing Trading Techniques

by Steve Palmquist, founder Daisydogger.com

Steve will outline the development and use of one of the trading systems in his traders tool box. Attendees will learn how the system behaves in different market conditions, and how it is effected by various filters.

Winning the Mental Side of Trading

by Steve Wheeler, Co-founder NaviTrader Inc.

Steve will discuss techniques for dealing with the most difficult part of trading, mastering our own behavior. He will share his methods developed for building a winning belief system and maintaining the mental edge for ongoing success.

Market Truths

by David Vomund, Chief Analyst, AIQ Systems

David Vomund will reveal important market truths that he has learned from actively studying and trading the market for nearly 20 years. These are the truths that experienced investors learn over time. New investors learn these truths the hard way — by losing money. Topics include market behavior, position sizing, and trading psychology.

Market Adaptive Trading

by Steve Palmquist, founder Daisydogger

Steve shares techniques for adapting your trading style to specific market conditions. Attendees will learn when to focus on trading long, when to focus on shorts, and when to stand aside. Reward risk ratios, profit projections, stop loss management and proper position sizing will all be covered.

Proven Method for Making Money in Stocks

by Henry Brookins, founder BrookinsBuys.com

Henry will discuss how he has been able to make money in stocks these past 14 years. He will discuss his methods in depth, from searching techniques to chart patterns, to entering and exiting the trade. He will also discuss methods that provide where the markets are in the cycle, and where they are going. What stocks are hot and should be tracked or bought will also be covered.

Learning to Improve Your Cash Flow Through a Tax Efficient Trading Plan

by Jim Crimmins, CEO, Traders Accounting

The U.S. currently has two tax systems! One is for individuals, one is for business. Guess which is best? To know how to maximize your tax efficiency you need to learn how to lower your taxes through legitimate methods. A trader's biggest expense whether they make or lose money is TAXES. Learn how to lower tax expenses, since every dollar you can save in taxes equates to a dollar you can keep in your trading account.
